

Kazuya Boehringer

LinkedIn Portfolio

krb2188@columbia.edu

Computer Science and Film undergraduate at Columbia University. British and Canadian.

Date of birth: 10/19/2005

Education:

King's College School Wimbledon (London, UK)	Sep 2019 - Jul 2024
○ International Baccalaureate: 40/45 points

Columbia University (New York, US)	Aug 2025 – present
○ Computer Science and Film majors – undeclared

Work Experience:

Animation Intern - Andraft Inc. (Tokyo, Japan)	Sep 2024 - Jun 2025
○ Worked in Clip Studio Paint on various anime shows, music videos, games and commercials (see credit list in portfolio).
○ Type of work included: key animation, secondary key animation, inbetweening and storyboarding.
○ Also worked as production management assistant, helping productions run smoothly.

Projects:

Short film (currently in production) - Columbia University Animation Team (Studio Dimension)
○ Working as director, storyboard artist and 2D animator. Leading a team of other 2D artists as well as 3DCG artists.
○ Project is primarily in the layout phase - once complete, key animations will be finished, coloured, and composited with 3DCG backgrounds.

Skills:

Animation: layout, key animation/second key animation, in-betweening, finishing/coloring, storyboarding

Video editing

Software: Clip Studio Paint EX, Adobe Photoshop, OpenToonz, Da Vinci Resolve, Hitfilm Express

Languages: English (native), Japanese (fluent), German (conversational - level 6 in IB standard level)

Programming languages: Python, Java, C